

Thursday 24th January

Thursday 24 th
TIME	LOCATION	ACTIVITY / NAME	DETAIL
8.00am-8.30am	HUB	Registration
8.30am	HUB	Pōhiri briefing	Learning about protocols on marae
9.45am-10.30am	Marae	Pōhiri
10.30am-11.00am	HUB	Morning Tea Registrations continued
11.10am-12.15pm	HUB	Opening Address	Rt Hon Jacinda Ardern, Prime Minister of New Zealand and Minister of Arts, Culture & Heritage (TBC)
12.15pm-1.30pm	HUB	Lunch and Art Play
PRESENTATIONS
1.30pm-2.15pm	AM101	Namita Bhatt	Rethinking Indigenous arts in early childhood curriculum: Experiences from India
	AM102	Sarah-Kay Coulter	The visual landscape of today: Children as creative technology producers
	AM104	Trang Nguyen, Janet Souter and Duc Bui	An emerging community based collaboration for an art-centred early childhood education: The establishment and growth of an International Preschool of the Arts, the first of its kind in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam
	AM106	Jo Dean	Building a 'Community of learners' through an art installation
	TTR104	Marta Cabral	Artmaking, materials, and ownership in early childhood education and care (ECEC)
2.30pm-3.15pm	AM101	Pete Moorhouse	The language and dialog of children's photography: Promoting children's voice
	AM102	Nicky de Lautour	De-constructing and re-constructing art in the early childhood curriculum
	AM104	Helen Wrightson and Yo Heta-Lensen	Toi tū te whenua: A study of Māori visual arts as dialogue with Papatūānuku
	TTR104	Michelle Johnson	Nothing like a visit to an art gallery to help you learn
WORKSHOPS
1.30pm-3.15pm	CO118	Susan Wright	How the visual arts contribute to the development of young children's working theories, stories and understandings about the world
	Student Union Foyer	Ngayuki Ishiga	Crisscrossed tape landscapes
	HUB	Yao Bingue and Liu Xiaowei	How to teach young children freehand paper-cutting
	AM Foyer	Sue Barratt	Weaving with harakeke
	HUB	Christine McMillan	Mark making and collage

Friday 25th January

Friday 25th
TIME	LOCATION	ACTIVITY/NAME	DETAIL
8.00am-9.00am	Various	Art Play	Free play with art materials at various locations: HUB; CO, TTR, AM Foyers
9.00am-10.00am	TTRLT1	Brilliant Bursts	Bhutan Revisited: Margaret Brooks and Tshering Wangmo
10.00am-10.30am	HUB Mezzanine	Morning Tea
PRESENTATIONS
10.30am-11.15am	AM101	Jacqueline Hayden	Art as a framework for working with young children experiencing disruption and distress
	AM102	Maisie Chilton Tressler	Visiting the gallery: Teaching young children within a gallery/ museum context
	AM104	Nicole Jamison	Artistic representations of young newcomer children: Exploring the personally significant
	AM106	Janita Crow	Navigating spaces and places for socially engaged art-centred inquiry pedagogy in 21st century early childhood's initial teacher education's flexible learning environments
	TTR104	Catherine Lee	Connecting the past to the present and looking toward the future: A collaborative art project.
11.30am-12.15pm	AM101	Sarah Bélanger-Martel	A shared experience: Collective construction of meaning among children in the context of a contemporary art exhibition visit
	AM102	Janette Kelly-Ware	Meeting diversity through picture book illustrations
	AM104	Zhao Gang	The classroom without walls: A brief introduction to the practice and exploration of after-school art teaching activities
	AM106	Clare Britt	Art & wonder: Young children and contemporary art
	TTR104	Helene Oberman	The 'welcoming' chair
WORKSHOPS
10.30am-12.15pm	AM103	Janette Keser and Deanna Ganyu	Materials as dialogue: Found and assembled
	CO118	Sibylle Haas	Workshop for inventors
	AM Foyer	Sue Barratt	Weaving with harakeke
	HUB	Christine McMillan	Mark making and collage
12.15pm-1.00pm	HUB	Lunch and Art Play
1.00pm		Travel Downtown	Buses to take participants into town
1.30pm-3.00pm	Te Papa Museum	Museum and Gallery visits	Panel presentation by gallery staff, followed by individual exploration
6.00pm	Hunter Lounge	Conference Dinner	Conference participant performances. Band.

Saturday 26th January

Saturday 26th
TIME	LOCATION	ACTIVITY/NAME	DETAIL
8.00am-9.00am	HUB	Art Play	Free play with art materials at various locations; HUB, CO, TTR, AM Foyers.
9.00am-10.00am	TTRLT1	Brilliant Bursts	Considering Culture: Mere Skerrett, Catherine Lee and Jing Zhou
10.00am-10.30am	HUB Mezzanine	Morning Tea
PRESENTATIONS
10.30am-11.15am	AM101	Anita Mortlock	Exploring the circle-symbol through children's collaborative artistic contribution in Neo-pagan festivals
	AM102	Kathy Danko-McGhee	Close encounters: Having fun in an art museum with little tots
	AM104	Gai Lindsay	I believe I can or can't...therefore I do or don't: The essential ingredients for fostering meaningful visual arts learning experiences for young children
	AM106	Mere Skerrett	Ancestral research/Theorizing through art
	TTR104	Andri Savva, V. Irakleous, E. Achilleos, S. Rossidou and C. Vasilou	CoulourBEing: Art in and out of the Museum
11.30am-12.15pm	AM101	Joke Den Haese	Growing through art: Facilitating democratic approaches to early childhood education
	AM102	Jaime Cullen and Anne Tasker	Rethinking rubbish: Exploring sustainability with children via the visual arts
	AM104	Margaret Brooks	Teaching the visual arts in early childhood in the 21st century
	AM105	Jeanette Clarkin-Phillips, Margaret Carr and Rebecca Thomas	Fostering the artistic and imaginative capacities of young children: A case study visit to a museum
	AM106	Helene Oberman	'Who am I' as a concept of what do I know about myself and how do I represent and share this?
	TTR104	Yali Yin, Jinxiu Zhang, Ming Li, Yun Liu and Ting Liu	A preliminary study on launching of pre-school children paper-cut art in Kindergarten
WORKSHOPS
10.30am-12.15pm	AM103	Amanda Palmer, Brook Morgan, Nicole Barakat, Clare Britt and Belinda David	Art & wonder: Young children and contemporary art
	CO118	Min Shen and Amy Xiaoxi Bai	Chinese ink painting
12.15pm-1.00pm	HUB	Lunch and Art Play
PRESENTATIONS
1.30pm-2.15pm	AM101	Sarah Bélanger-Martel	"Our enchanted forest": Using the arts to engage young children in an urban design project
	AM102	Margaret Sims, Jo Bird and Marg Rogers	Media arts: Supporting family and cultural narratives digitally
	AM104	Sheree Teau and Priyanka Gahlot	Creating ART collectively
	AM106	Sarah McIlroy and Lia de Vocht	Student teachers exploring visual art experiences in Aotearoa/New Zealand early childhood contexts
	TTR104	Sarah Probine	"I need to make a ghostbuster!"
2.30pm-3.15pm	AM101	Diti Hill and Helen Aitken	Challenging our adult understanding of the aesthetical dimension to children's knowledge building: An exploration
	AM102	Maisie Chilton Tressler	Visual art as a vehicle for meaningful learning within the context of culture

	AM104	Li Lin and Ji Yunfei	From emphasizing skills to promoting multiple expressions: The practice reform of fine arts education in Chinese kindergartens
	AM106	Bridgette Towle and Angela Heap	Cup: A vibrant vessel of learning and creativity
	TTR104	Rachel Denee, Judith Loveridge, Lisa Terreni and Jing Zhou	Art and storytelling: Transforming visual arts pedagogy and practice in kindergartens in China and New Zealand
WORKSHOPS
1.30pm-3.15pm	AM103	Christine Alford and Zair Taylor	The exploration of nature through art
	HUB	Gaye Jurisich	Installations in the Hub
	HUB	Rod Eales	Drawing in the Hub

Sunday 27th January

Sunday 27 th
TIME	LOCATION	ACTIVITY/NAME	DETAIL
8.00am-9.00am	HUB	Art Play	Free play with art materials at various locations: HUB; CO, TTR, AM Foyers
9.00am-10.00am	TTRLT1	Brilliant Bursts	Thinking About Teaching: Helen May, Gai Lindsay and Ann Pairman
10.00am-10.30am	HUB	Morning Tea
PRESENTATIONS
10.30am-11.15am	AM101	Amina Gurung and Gai Lindsay	In search of Gross National Happiness through culturally relevant visual arts curricula: A cross-cultural research collaboration
	AM102	Kathy Danko-McGhee	The sensorium: Creating multimodal aesthetic learning environments for infants
	AM104	Adrienne Wilkins	How the visual arts contribute to the development of young children's working theories, stories, and understandings about the world at Sophia Preschool
	AM106	Rosemary Richards	Children's reimagined visual images: Copying or co-constructing?
	TTR104	Julie Wren	The importance of arts responses to young children's meaning-making
11.30am-12.15pm	AM101	Rachel Denee	ECE teachers' current perceptions and practice around visual arts
	AM102	Kathy Gelding	Children draw their theories of identity and belonging through engaging with contemporary Australian Aboriginal art.
	AM104	Sabine Plamper	Understanding with your hands
	AM106	Leanna Miratana, Rebecca Bentley, Maria Maresca and Rose McNaught	Developing a culture of "Yes". Inviting toddlers to fully engage in art experiences that sings to THEIR senses.
WORKSHOPS
10.30am-12.15pm	AM103	Marg Rogers	Integrating animal movements into dances and recording those through visual and media arts
	TTR104	Jo Bird	Encouraging children to be creators of digital art
	HUB	Gaye Jurisich	Installations in the Hub
	HUB	Rod Eales	Drawing in the Hub
12.15pm-1.00pm	HUB	Lunch and Art Play
1.00pm-2.00pm	TTRLT1	Plenary Session	Bids for next conference
2.00pm	TTRLT1	Conference Closing Ceremony	